The dispatch was published this morning, and before 1 o'clock to-day the following telegram was recived from one of the parties named as a distance with parties named as a dilatory wit-

MACON, GA., July 21, 1871. Sir I telegraphed July 11th that I was ready to report, and received July 12th from J. R. French a reply that I need not come, the committee not having time for more witness

(Signed) T. HARDEMAN, Jr. The J. C. French mentioned is the Radical Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, and he also acts as marshal cannot afford to sell goods at as low a figure as a firm whose expenses are reduced by the same amount.—
Indeed, experience proves that com-ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM Coughs & Consumption. are reduced by the same amount.—
Indeed, experience proves that competition by the latter against the former is almost impossible.

This is the experience of a New vestigation. French was sent for, but her the could not be competition. This is the experience of a New York merchant, indersed by the New York Grocer, a recognized standard of authority in New York commercial circles. Added to this may be mentioned the fact that if the country merchant is sometimes bored with too much dramming he living and unauthorized telegrams. As an Expectorant, it has no Equa FECTLY HARMLESS to the MOST DELI bored with too much drumming, he is never bored by the advertisement and usually trades with those who advertise most and drum least. and NEELY & ROBERTS, Druggists, Jack-son, Tenn.

The following, from the Dyersburg Gazette, with very slight modifications, would suit other places we wot of:

The question now arises whether French did this on his own responsibility, or whether he was urged to it by a Radicalmember of the committee. Certain it is that the committee as whether mittee, as a whole, did not author-
